

WEYLER BEATEN.

Met by Maceo Today and in a
Pitiful Battle

THE CUBANS WIN.

White Caps at Covington Do
Fatal Work.

FLOODS IN WASHINGTON.

New York, Nov. 16.—News from Havana is that Generals Weyler and Maceo have met and that a pitched battle is in progress. The Cuban general seems to have shown himself a match for his haughty antagonist and it is believed will prove the victor.

A Shooting Affray.

Inez, Ky., Nov. 16.—Albert Dawson, of this town, was shot twice this morning by Tim Kazee, because he had insulted Kazee's sister. Kazee escaped and Dawson is lying in a dangerous condition.

Floods in the Far West.

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 16.—The Northern Pacific railroad is greatly damaged by floods from overflows of the white and black rivers. The road is practically closed to traffic between this city and Seattle. Only one telegraph wire out of seven is working.

National Fox Hunters' Meeting.
Hardtown, Ky., Nov. 16.—The National Association of Fox Hunters is in session here today.

Pardon for Seacore.

Lexington, Nov. 15.—A petition is circulating here for the pardon of Frank Seacore, the forger, in confinement in the Frankfort penitentiary.

Weyler Must Hustle.

Washington, Nov. 16.—It is reported here on excellent authority that Gen. Weyler has been given to understand by the Spanish government that he must put down the Cuban rebellion soon or he will be recalled. The Spanish government is becoming desperate and something must be done in Cuba.

5,000 Men Rejoicing.

Anderson, Ind., Nov. 16.—Ten factories started here this morning and five thousand men went to work. More men are at work in this city today than at any time before in nearly two years. Factories also resumed operations today at Alexandria, Elwood and several other towns in the gas belt.

White Caps at Work.

Covington, Ky., Nov. 16.—White caps, dressed as women, last night went to the residence of Mrs. Harrison with whom the scandal of the neighborhood John Hamlin has for some time been living, took the pair out and beat them so terribly that both will die of their injuries.

Fair's Millions.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 16.—A will case involving twenty millions is now on trial at San Francisco. It is that of the late Senator Fair. An attempt has been made to establish a will written in lead pencil, and this is one of the points involved—whether a lead pencil will be valid.

Maj. Crumbaugh for Collector.

Hopkinsville, Nov. 16.—Maj. S. R. Crumbaugh, of this city, who at the recent election was elected to the state senate from the Christian-Hopkins district by a handsome majority will be an applicant under the McKinley administration for the position of revenue collector of the Second Kentucky district with strong prospects of success. He was collector under President Arthur, and is known as one of the original McKinley men in this state. He will have the endorsement of E. T. Frank, late Republican nominee for congress in the Second district, and other leading Republicans. He is a personal friend of the president-elect.

Indorses Sam Roberts.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 16.—The daily "Argonaut," the radical free silver organ of this city, came out in a two-column editorial yesterday morning indorsing Sam J. Roberts, Postmaster General under Mr. McKinley. The "Argonaut" says Mr. Roberts' thorough mastery of detail in any business he undertakes shows him to be eminently qualified for the position of Postmaster General. The paper devotes nearly a column to abuse of Roberts for his ultra Republicanism and unremitting fight against Bourbon Democracy. It admits, however, that it is but fair to admit that Mr. Roberts would be a right man to watch after the mail.

BRYAN BETTORS.

A New York Paper Tells How Bets On the State Should Be Decided.

In the current issue of the Turf, Field and Farm, which is an authority on betting, in the regular department of "Queries and Answers," is the following:
Democrat, Lexington, Ky.—I bet $25 that Bryan will carry Kentucky. I understand that in deciding wagers in Presidential elections the votes for the elector named on any ticket go to the elector named on the ticket. It now (November 8) looks like the top elector on the Bryan ticket would get a plurality of the votes on the McKinley ticket would be elected. In that case, how would my bet stand?

Answer—You would lose. According to the rule the plurality in a state is determined by a comparison of the vote for the top elector on each state, but the candidate who has a majority of the electors carries a state. While a definite decision on your suppositious case can now be given, a final one cannot until the full official returns are received.

CONSOLIDATION OF DEPOTS.

This is Probable by January
First.

Information From a Semi-Official
Source.

It is now almost certain that after January 1st all passenger trains coming to Paducah will run into the union depot. As yet no official notice has been received in Paducah to this effect, but it is nevertheless true that the Illinois Central has made to the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis road a proposition tending to consolidate the two depots, and a prominent official of the latter road, who is in a position to know, says that in all probability the proposition will be accepted, in fact it is so favorable that it could hardly be rejected. If so the new service will be inaugurated Jan. 1st. It will not, however, affect the freight department of the N., C. & St. L., which will remain where it now is. Such an arrangement would result in many advantages to the traveling public, and especially those who desire to transfer from one road to the other.

RESOLUTIONS

Passed at Meeting of the Bar
This Forenoon.

COURT ADJOURNS TO WEDNESDAY

Judge Bloomfield Presents a Separate Resolution.

MUCH SORROW WAS EXPRESSED.

At an adjourned meeting of the bar, held at the county court house in the city today, the 16th day of November, to take further action in respect to the memory of the late Judge Chas. S. Marshall, Hon. W. S. Bishop, chairman.

The committee on resolutions, appointed at the last meeting, reported the following resolutions:

The sad intelligence has come to this Honorable Court and members of the bar that the Hon. Chas. S. Marshall departed this life at Clinton, Ky., on the 13th day of November, 1896.

The court and bar feel that it is highly proper that note and record be made of the estimation in which he was held by both the bench and bar.

For a period of forty years an ornament to both. As a counselor he was wise, judicious and sincere. As a judge he was learned, fair and impartial, his greatest object and purpose to see that justice was done.

In both capacities he was courteous, straightforward and frank; never was known to violate the ethics of the profession or soil the judicial ermine. Socially he was genial and entertaining, according to his fellows the right of individual opinion, claiming the same rights only for himself.

The weight of his influence was always in favor of morality, good government and obedience to divine and civil law. It can justly be said of him that he was universally loved and respected by all who knew him.

His integrity was as high as the noblest man can attain to, a model for the bench, the bar, and the community. Our sympathy goes out to his family in their great loss and sorrow.

Resolved, That this expression be spread upon the records of this court, that the members of this court attend the funeral services in a body.

That a copy be furnished the family and published in the city papers.

(Signed)
THOS. E. MOSS,
L. D. HUSBANDS,
J. W. BLOOMFIELD,
HENRY BURKETT,
Q. Q. QUIGLEY,
Committee.

Judge J. W. Bloomfield, who was formerly a partner of the deceased, presented the following resolution, which was accepted:

Never have the members of the Paducah bar had a cause to regret, from among their members, a better man, good and just in all the relations of life, or a profounder lawyer and jurist, learned and able above his fellows, than today, the death of Judge Chas. S. Marshall.

His life was a noble one, whether as a lawyer here for years practicing his profession, or the circuit judge, presiding, or as a citizen, neighbor or friend, in all he was endeared to us and no words today can testify in its fullness our great love for him and our great grief at his death.

Speeches were made by Hons. Q. Q. Quigley, J. W. Bloomfield, L. D. Husbands, C. H. Thomas, E. W. Bagby, Thomas E. Moss and W. S. Bishop.

The resolutions, were unanimously adopted and the members of the bar decided to meet at the office of Mr. W. F. Bradshaw tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and attend the funeral in a body.

A communication was received from the family requesting that L. D. Husbands, W. S. Bishop, Q. Q. Quigley, E. W. Bagby, J. D. White, J. W. Bloomfield, J. H. Ashcraft and Thomas E. Moss act as pall bearers and meet the remains at the depot.

MORTUARY RECORD.

Several Deaths in the City
Today.

Sudden and Peculiar Death of Mr. J. H. Bass.

Mr. John Henry Bass died at his home in Mechanicsburg this morning at 8 o'clock of hemorrhage of the nose. His case is a somewhat peculiar one. Last Friday night shortly after supper his nose began to bleed profusely without any apparent cause and continued to bleed with scarcely any interruption up to the time of his death. Everything that medical skill could suggest was resorted to in order to stop the flow of blood, but to no avail. He was fully conscious till the last moment and his death was apparently painless.

Mr. Bass was about thirty-three years old and leaves a young wife and one child. He came to this city from Grand Rivers about eight years ago and since his residence here has been in the employment of the St. Bernard Coal Company.

WHAT A FAKE!

There Was No Killing in Ballard at All.

ONLY A SHOOTING SCRAPE.

The Two Men Shot are Expected to Rapidly Recover—So is Young Taylor.

MORT SHELBY AND SON DIDN'T FLEE.

There was no tragedy on Gar creek, in the sand ridge section of Ballard county, neither is there any great excitement.

John Taylor was not killed and neither was his son, Rome Taylor. Deputy Revenue Collector McD. Ferguson returned from Ballard this morning and was right at the scene of the alleged tragedy yesterday.

Mort Shelby and his son, Alf, are both at home, and have never left since their difficulty with John Taylor and his son, last Thursday.

Mort Shelby, since he was arrested and tried for the murder of Aunt Sallie Moore several years ago, being finally acquitted, has been regarded by his neighbors somewhat as a Pariah, and a feeling of intense bitterness has always existed between them.

In anticipation of trouble Shelby always went armed, and even when in Paducah carried a Winchester rifle. Bloodshed has been expected for sometime, but it never occurred until last Thursday.

According to the account given to Mr. Ferguson, Taylor's dogs got into Shelby's field, and the latter "dogged" them. This incensed Taylor, who suddenly appeared on the scene and as both men were armed their altercation provoked a fusillade of bullets.

Shelby was shot through the wrist and disabled, Taylor shooting five times in all, four balls striking Shelby. One flesh wound was inflicted on the neck, one on the abdomen and one in the back, but the only serious wound is the one in the wrist.

At this juncture Rome Taylor and Alf Shelby arrived and began defending their respective fathers. Young Shelby "clubbed" his father and struck Rome Taylor with a stick of the weapon, and Dr. Farmer made a hole by a rifle ear, which penetrated the ear.

The fight ended Dr. the two Shelby's surrendered claiming self defense, which will likely be able to establish, as Shelby was wounded and stuck right at home with a courage really remarkable.

The examining trial was set for Saturday, but owing to young Rome Taylor's uncertain condition, it was deferred indefinitely.

Mort Shelby is getting along well and John Taylor is wounded, but not seriously. His son is seriously hurt, but is not dead, and last night his chances for recovery were good. Alf Shelby was not injured in the melee.

Mr. Ferguson's story was confirmed by several other gentlemen from Ballard county, who claim that the excitement over the affair is not as great as reported.
